

National Electrical Entrepreneurs Association

The short name of the association is VVE, the seat is in 67. I/7 st. Árpád in Budapest, in Hungary.

The members are the national and international manufacturers, distributors, importers, retailers, wholesalers and installation and panel building companies of the Hungarian electrical industry.

The main aim of the association is to support the professional work, the education the scientific activity in electrical business and from 2007 also safeguarding of interests licences.

The main fields of the associations are:

- It has a suggestion and report function about the government decisions, plans, and developments, laws who refers his professional field, and works out standpoints and suggests modifications
- The professional safeguarding of interests of legal and natural person of the disponent members
- The continuous exchange of experience between the members
- The elaboration of unified professional ethical standards
- The support of European integrations process, to the fact related affords professional information for the members, supporting the competition works to the members, the regular information about the questions about the professional field, within the development of information base and system.
- The organisation of professional conferences and forums and professional journey
- The development financial and professional security of electrical market
- Keeping connection with national professional and other organisations and with foreign and international associations.

The association has no undertaking activity, but has- exclusively with complementary character- with the interest of insurance from aims and tasks - in principle a possibility.

The memberships of association are foundation member and the members who entered later. The members could be the ordinary member, the honorary member and the supporting member.

The member of the association by the reason of the fundamental rule could be a natural or a legal person, and the organisation that has no legal personality.

The condition of the acceptance of the members is the admission of the candidate must be underwritten by 3 members, and the more than 50% of the presidency must vote on the presidency chair for the admission.

The main leading organization is the general assembly, which can decide in all general assembly questions. The general assembly consists of the summery of the members.
The operative leading of the association has a presidency with 3 members.

The property of the association represents from the annual membership fee from the members, the offers and donations of other persons, undertakers.

The association offers for all player of the market, and would accept your admission from all over the world.

The annual membership fee for legal person is HUF 300,000.

You can submit your admission to the address of vve@upcmail.hu per e-mail.

You could find detailed information about us on our website:www.villamosipar.hu .
The association is the member of EUEW. (www.euew.org)